October Event Highlights

Community Baby Shower (October 10th)

12:00–4:00 PM | Soldotna Elks Lodge

Calling all expecting moms and families with new babies! Join the community for a fun-filled baby shower with games, prizes, food, gifts, free shopping, and resource booths from local organizations. Come connect with other families, learn about resources available in our community, and enjoy an afternoon celebrating moms and babies!

Beyond the Behavior (October 15th–November 19th)

6:00–8:00 PM | Frontier Community Services, Soldotna

Learn more about the brain behind complex behaviors during this free six-week training for parents and professionals. Using the FASCETS Neurobehavioral Approach, participants will explore how brain function can impact emotions, self-regulation, learning, communication, daily routines, expectations, relationships, and behavior. Happening every Thursday 6pm-8pm, Register on the Frontier Community Services website under the FASD Services tab. Childcare not provided.
